

SPORTS

Notre Dame Team Prepared to Enter Crucial Game Today

Giants Steal Yanks' Thunder Winning Third Game of Series After Wild Orgy of Slugging

Jawn McGraw's Men Spot American Opponents Four Runs, Then Sew Up Swatfest by Two Record Innings by 13 to 5 Score.

BARNES

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Giants awoke from their two days of lethargy Friday and sprinkled the green Polo grounds with such a shower of hits that the Yanks were swamped under a score of 13 to 5, in the third game of the world series.

The National leaguers had gone runless for twenty innings up to the third session of the afternoon's struggle. Then the outbreak of hitting started.

Stealing the Yanks' thunder, as the latter had stolen theirs in the previous games of the series in speed and daring on the bases, John McGraw's men, after spotting their American league opponents to a four-run lead, promptly cancelled their advantage, driving Bob Shawkey, who had started for Miller Huggins' team, off the mound in the third inning. Then, after the score had run along in a tie for three more innings, they broke out with an orgy of hitting against second string Yankee pitchers in the traditional "lucky seventh" inning, putting over eight more runs in this chapter, and piloting up a total of 13 runs and 20 hits in their eight innings at the bat.

Despite its one-sidedness, the game was of the sort that tickles the fancy of the average baseball crowd, and Friday's throng, despite the partisan leanings of a goodly portion of it, was no exception. The game was a jumping catch in the second inning, and played the game as hard from the start, on the Giants' side, long distance hitting.

The crowd, with perfect baseball weather to bring it out, was a record breaker for this series. More than 36,000 fans jammed the stands and bleachers. They broke the series record for noise and enthusiasm as well. The turn of the Yankee adherents came first, but the hubbub they kicked up was as nothing to that let loose by the Giants' fans when their opportunity arrived.

Crowd Played The Game.
With the McGraw clan riding rough-shod over their opponents, the National League partisans unlimbered their vocal cords, their rowdiness and rattle, here and there, and played the game as hard from the start, on the Giants' side, long distance hitting.

The Yank fielders stood up well under the bombardment of hits and incidentally turned in some notable defensive feats. One of those was a jumping catch in the second inning by Aaron Ward, the Yank second sacker, which resulted in a double play.

It was George Burns, the Giants' centerfielder, however, who turned in the most remarkable feat of the game and also of the series. In the seventh inning he started back with the crack of Pitcher Quinn's bat against the ball and while still on the run hauled down the drive over his shoulder, close to the outfield fence. It was a marvelous piece of fielding and it drew a big demonstration from the crowd.

All the Giants with the exception of Toney and Kelly figured in the hitting. Toney was taken from the game before he had a chance to bat. Burns and Snyder divided the batting honors, each making four hits. Burns' hitting included a double and a triple. Young had a double and a triple, while "Irish" Meusel had two singles and a double.

Babe Has Infection.
Babe Ruth had another colorless day compared with some of his work during the season's campaign. In four trips to the plate he struck out twice, made a single which scored two Yanks runs and drew a base on balls. He left the game in the eighth inning, after he had received a base on balls, Fawcett, running for him and scoring a run. It was said the home run king was suffering from an infected arm. In the folding side, he had but one chance, capturing Bancroft's sacrifice fly.

The game, which ended so lopsidedly, started out as if it might be another pitchers' battle. Toney, who started for the Giants, breezed along comfortably for two innings. The Yanks got him in the third, however, and he was taken out, with the bases full, none out, and three runs in. Another run was scored by the Yanks before "Jaws" Barnes, who relieved him, could retire the side.

Shawkey met his fate, like Toney, in this same inning. His wildness was responsible. After he had forced two runs over the plate by passing batters, Jack Quinn was called to the mound. Two outs of the Giants' lineup were left on the base subsequently tallied, but there was no more scoring off Quinn until the tempestuous seventh. Meanwhile Barnes was swirling a heady, steady buzz, and holding the Yanks safe, as he did to the end.

Then came the Yanks' third inning. Schang drew a base on balls and reached third on Shawkey's single to right. Miller hit for a base scoring Schang and moving Shawkey to second. Toney gave Peckinpaugh a base on balls and all corners were filled, cheers of the Yankee fans rocked the stands as the home run king walked to the plate. Ruth slammed Toney's sixth pitch and drove it to center for a single, sending home both Shawkey and Miller. Peckinpaugh took third. Here Toney was waved off the mound and Barnes was brought out of the bull pen. Ruth went out trying to steal. Bob Meusel walked and Peckinpaugh scored on Pipp's out. This ended the Yank scoring in the inning.

Giants Let Loose.
The four run lead looked big to the Giants as they went to bat. Barnes, first up, poked a single to left. Burns went out on a fly to center but Capt. Bancroft laced a single to right, Barnes stopping at second. Shawkey threw wide to Frisch who walked, filling the bases. Shawkey appeared to lose control and passed Young, forcing home Barnes with the Giants' first run of the series. Shawkey then passed Kelly, forcing home Bancroft. Quinn replaced Shawkey with the bases still loaded. Frisch scored while "Irish" Meusel was being put out at first. Young and Kelly moving up. Young came home with the tying run when Rawlings hit a grounder.

Peckinpaugh, who could not handle the ball in time to throw out the Giants' second baseman, Snyder fouled out to Pipp and left the score tied in a knot until the Giants' hectic seventh inning.

The National League leaders made their eighth inning more than in the two previous games of the series. Frisch began the attack by slashing a single to center and went to third on Young's tow bager to right field. Kelly walked and the bases were filled. There was tremendous cheering when Frisch walked, filling the bases. Frisch stole second, sending home Frisch and Young. Kelly stopped at third on the hit. Rawlings came through with a single to center, scoring Kelly and Meusel.

Rip Sent to Mound.
Here Collins took up the pitching burden for the Yanks but was un-dermined by the Giants' attack. Giants. After Rawlings went out trying to steal, Snyder, Barnes and Burns hit out singles amid frenzied rooting. With the bases full, Bancroft lifted a sacrifice fly to Ruth, scoring Snyder. Frisch walked and the National League lead broke into tumultuous cheering as Young swept the bases with a tremendous three bager to left center. Collins then waved goodnight to the crowd. Fawcett, the Yank's rescuer, threw out Frisch, who stole second, but Schang was thrown out to a double. Young to Rawlings. Quinn fanned, leaving McNally on.

Fourth Inning.
YANKS—McNally got in the way of the first ball that Barnes pitched and was sent to first. Schang singled to right. McNally threw to third, but Schang was thrown out to a double. Young to Rawlings. Quinn fanned, leaving McNally on.

First Inning.
YANKS—Meusel hit the third ball pitched on a line to Frisch. Peckinpaugh hit an easy roller to Rawlings and was thrown out; at first. Ruth got a mighty chest but fanned, swinging hard at the last strike. Toney worked hard at him, and was given a rousing greeting as he walked to the bench.

Second Inning.
YANKS—Meusel decided to left. It was a Texas leaguer and the Yank right fielder stretched it into a double by speedy running. Pipp out on a sacrifice. Toney to Kelly. Meusel going to third. Meusel tried to score when Ward hit a bouncer but he was out at the plate. Rawlings to Snyder. Ward safe at first. McNally forced Ward at second. Bancroft to Rawlings, ending the inning.

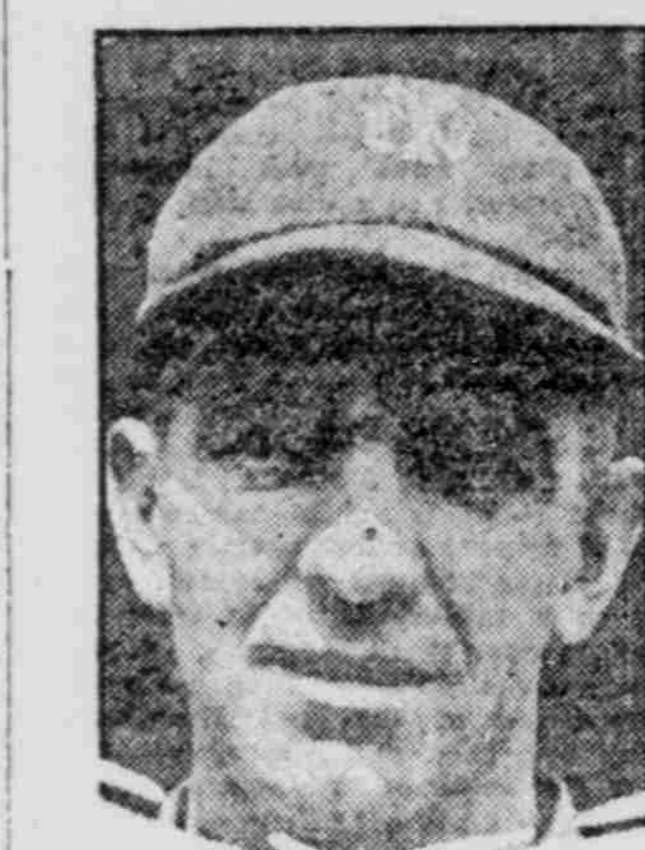

Third Inning.
YANKS—Meusel decided to left. It was a Texas leaguer and the Yank right fielder stretched it into a double by speedy running. Pipp out on a sacrifice. Toney to Kelly. Meusel going to third. Meusel tried to score when Ward hit a bouncer but he was out at the plate. Rawlings to Snyder. Ward safe at first. McNally forced Ward at second. Bancroft to Rawlings, ending the inning.

Fourth Inning.
YANKS—McNally got in the way of the first ball that Barnes pitched and was sent to first. Schang singled to right. McNally threw to third, but Schang was thrown out to a double. Young to Rawlings. Quinn fanned, leaving McNally on.

First Inning.
YANKS—Meusel hit the third ball pitched on a line to Frisch. Peckinpaugh hit an easy roller to Rawlings and was thrown out; at first. Ruth got a mighty chest but fanned, swinging hard at the last strike. Toney worked hard at him, and was given a rousing greeting as he walked to the bench.

Second Inning.
YANKS—Meusel decided to left. It was a Texas leaguer and the Yank right fielder stretched it into a double by speedy running. Pipp out on a sacrifice. Toney to Kelly. Meusel going to third. Meusel tried to score when Ward hit a bouncer but he was out at the plate. Rawlings to Snyder. Ward safe at first. McNally forced Ward at second. Bancroft to Rawlings, ending the inning.

The Giants Wrath Broke on Their Shoulders

SHAWKEY

QUINN

COLLINS

ROGERS

Clubs Push Plans for Basketball League Here

MORE CLUBS DECIDE TO ENTER QUINTETS IN SIX TEAM LEAGUE

out trying to steal second, Shang to Ward.

No runs. Two hits. No errors.

YANKS—Schang walked. Shawkey singled to right Schang going to third. Miller sent the crowd into a spasm of delight by dumping a Texas leaguer into right, scoring Schang. Shawkey going to second. Peckinpaugh walked, filling the bases, bringing Ruth up. The cheers of the crowd were deafening. Ruth singled, scoring Shawkey and Miller. It was a hard grounder that went shooting by Toney straight over second. Jess Barnes was called in to take Toney's place in the box. Ruth was out trying to steal second. Snyder to Rawlings. Meusel walked. Pipp out. Rawlings to Kelly. Peckinpaugh scored on an effort to find out what might be in to take Toney's place in the box. Four runs. Three hits. No errors.

GIANTS—Barnes singled to left center. A fast runner would have made a double out of K. Burns fled to Miller. Bancroft singled to right. Frisch walked, filling the bases. The crowd jeered Shawkey for refusing to take a chance. Barnes scored. Shawkey could not get the ball over for Young and he walked him, forcing in a run. Shawkey also walked Kelly after working the count to 3 and 2. Bancroft replaced Shawkey with the bases full. Free ticket to Kelly sent Shawkey to the club house. The veteran, Jack Quinn was called in to take his place. He found a tough situation, the bases full and only one out. The slugging Irish Meusel was the first batter to face him. Frisch scored. Meusel hit a bouncer to Pipp who retired him unassisted. Frisch scoring on the play. Rawlings beat out an infield hit to Peckinpaugh and young dashed across the plate with the run. Snyder went out on a foul to Pipp.

Fourth Inning.
YANKS—McNally got in the way of the first ball that Barnes pitched and was sent to first. Schang singled to right. McNally threw to third, but Schang was thrown out to a double. Young to Rawlings. Quinn fanned, leaving McNally on.

First Inning.
YANKS—Meusel hit the third ball pitched on a line to Frisch. Peckinpaugh hit an easy roller to Rawlings and was thrown out; at first. Ruth got a mighty chest but fanned, swinging hard at the last strike. Toney worked hard at him, and was given a rousing greeting as he walked to the bench.

Second Inning.
YANKS—Meusel decided to left. It was a Texas leaguer and the Yank right fielder stretched it into a double by speedy running. Pipp out on a sacrifice. Toney to Kelly. Meusel going to third. Meusel tried to score when Ward hit a bouncer but he was out at the plate. Rawlings to Snyder. Ward safe at first. McNally forced Ward at second. Bancroft to Rawlings, ending the inning.

Third Inning.
YANKS—Meusel hit the third ball pitched on a line to Frisch. Peckinpaugh hit an easy roller to Rawlings and was thrown out; at first. Ruth got a mighty chest but fanned, swinging hard at the last strike. Toney worked hard at him, and was given a rousing greeting as he walked to the bench.

Fourth Inning.
YANKS—McNally got in the way of the first ball that Barnes pitched and was sent to first. Schang singled to right. McNally threw to third, but Schang was thrown out to a double. Young to Rawlings. Quinn fanned, leaving McNally on.

First Inning.
YANKS—Meusel hit the third ball pitched on a line to Frisch. Peckinpaugh hit an easy roller to Rawlings and was thrown out; at first. Ruth got a mighty chest but fanned, swinging hard at the last strike. Toney worked hard at him, and was given a rousing greeting as he walked to the bench.

Second Inning.
YANKS—Meusel decided to left. It was a Texas leaguer and the Yank right fielder stretched it into a double by speedy running. Pipp out on a sacrifice. Toney to Kelly. Meusel going to third. Meusel tried to score when Ward hit a bouncer but he was out at the plate. Rawlings to Snyder. Ward safe at first. McNally forced Ward at second. Bancroft to Rawlings, ending the inning.

Athletic Spirit in Clubs at Fever Pitch and Success of Plan Assured.

The proposed basketball league among the clubs in this city received a decided boost last night when it was learned that practically every large club was very much in favor of such an organization and that the K. of C.'s here were planning on appointing a committee to groom the basket losers of the society for a real season. The Elk committee is to get together Monday night when initial plans will be made to collect all the waxed floor athletes of the fraternal order in an effort to form a fast going quintet.

Eight clubs will probably fight for a position in the proposed six club league. Interest among the fraternity group in this city is in an athletic fever never before known and all efforts will be made to keep it at just that standard until the formation of the organization has been completed and all points concerning members decided.

Fearful that high class professional talent, too strong for other contestants might be injected into the league, the organization has been decided that on the first meeting of the committee from the various clubs a list of ineligible players will be drawn that will eliminate all trouble from the well known "too good" angle.

Can Play at "Y."
It was also learned definitely that the league could play the games at the local Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and G. A. Cooper, physical director has been searching his schedule in an effort to find out what nights could be devoted to the league games.

The question in the minds of those forming the league is whether or not it is possible to satisfactorily arrange an eight team organization. While there are a number of clubs willing to enter representatives it would be almost useless to form a league with six strong quintets and two weak ones. Six teams could arrange to play their games on schedule in one night while an eight team would necessarily have to use two nights for staging the great indoor club battles.

Final steps in organizing are expected to be completed in the next few days and after a couple of weeks practice the league the teams will be prepared to lineup for the first games.

down the first base line, spending Frisch and Young across the pan. Rawlings smashed a single through the pitching box, scoring Kelly and Meusel. That meant the end of the box and Rogers replaced him. Snyder singled to center, for the fifth hit of the inning. It was Snyder's third hit. Barnes singled to left. Burns singled to center, filling the bases. Snyder scored on Bancroft's long fly to Ruth in left. Ruth did not even make an attempt to get him at the plate. Frisch walked, filling the bases. Young cleared the bases with a tremendous triple over Miller's head in center. The hit drove Collins out of the box and Rogers replaced him. Kelly brought the run making to a close by rolling weakly to Rogers, who threw him out.

Eight runs. Eight hits. No errors.
GIANTS—Barnes singled to left center. A fast runner would have made a double out of K. Burns fled to Miller. Bancroft singled to right. Frisch walked, filling the bases. The crowd jeered Shawkey for refusing to take a chance. Barnes scored. Shawkey could not get the ball over for Young and he walked him, forcing in a run. Shawkey also walked Kelly after working the count to 3 and 2. Bancroft replaced Shawkey with the bases full. Free ticket to Kelly sent Shawkey to the club house. The veteran, Jack Quinn was called in to take his place. He found a tough situation, the bases full and only one out. The slugging Irish Meusel was the first batter to face him. Frisch scored. Meusel hit a bouncer to Pipp who retired him unassisted. Frisch scoring on the play. Rawlings beat out an infield hit to Peckinpaugh and young dashed across the plate with the run. Snyder went out on a foul to Pipp.

Fourth Inning.
YANKS—McNally got in the way of the first ball that Barnes pitched and was sent to first. Schang singled to right. McNally threw to third, but Schang was thrown out to a double. Young to Rawlings. Quinn fanned, leaving McNally on.

First Inning.
YANKS—Meusel hit the third ball pitched on a line to Frisch. Peckinpaugh hit an easy roller to Rawlings and was thrown out; at first. Ruth got a mighty chest but fanned, swinging hard at the last strike. Toney worked hard at him, and was given a rousing greeting as he walked to the bench.

TEX 'N' EM

Batteries for today's world series game—For Iowa, Devine and Devine; for Notre Dame, Mohardt and Coughlin. Yes, and Notre Dame has the "Wynne" right with it.

The world series games have been moved from Gotham, and part of the contesting players passed out of here yesterday on their way to Iowa City.

WE FEEL A POEM COMING OVER US!!!
At running down the gridiron he had all men beat by far; He got his practice when he chased a bloom'ing Hill street car.

Papers say that Jim Jeffries drops a cold $65,000 in all stock. Yes, but he probably didn't feel it half as bad as when Jack Johnson knocked him cold.

Having loafed all summer, the Columbus American association ball players are in the pink of condition for a hard winter vacation.

With the price of coal as high as it is, it doesn't look as if many pairs of pants would be burnt in the hot stove league this winter.

From the score of Notre Dame's first two grid battles one would suspect that the lively ball had been carried over into the football season.

It sure gives a fella a thrill to take the last half buck out of his jeans and remember that pay day is still three days away.

Rip Collins ripped the Yankee chances to pieces when he was sent into that quiet little ball game yesterday.

George Hull says that from the number of arrests happening in this country it looks as if "bootlegging" was getting to be a crime.

Guess the boys found out from the number of arrests happening in this country it looks as if "bootlegging" was getting to be a crime.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

The Meusel brothers have something to fight about now when they get home at night.

Grant in Rockne Lineup as Gold and Blue Players Wait for Whistle to Tackle Iowa

Any Iowan Advantage Overshadowed as Experienced and Dazzling Pivot Man is Injected Into Game to Direct Warriors.

BENDERS PRACTICE FOR WILEY BATTLE

Stop at Greencastle and Hold Hour's Workout on De-paww Gridiron.

Ready to prove that their defeat at the hands of Clinton high school was due to their hard trip and not their inability to play real football, Capt. Edwards' high schoolers will arrive at Terre Haute early today ready to defeat Wiley high school, which has registered a decided win over Clinton.

Anxious to take advantage of every opportunity to master new plays and signals the Benders got off their train when it pulled into Greencastle. In yesterday afternoon and left for the DePaww gridiron there, where they went through an hour's signal drill.

Coach Elmer Burnham was his customary before-the-game smile as he boarded the train from Greencastle and though he refused to be very optimistic regarding the possibilities of victory, remarked that Sabo was fit to enter the game and would be a tower of strength for the locals. Capt. Edwards was a little more confident and said: "We're going after them from the first whistle to the last. I hope we play Clinton again."

Wiley high has been a thorn in the side of more than one group of aspiring high school football players will start the contest affecting in its customary ripping style. With a light and fast backfield and two stellar ends, they will probably mix forward passing and off-tackle plays for the duration of the battle.

Every one of the first-string Benders will start the game, and the men are confident that they will obtain as good results from their battle as they did from the game with the alumni.

CONFERENCE TEAMS FACE HARD RIVALS

Minnesota's Chances Will Be Judged by Game With Northwestern.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Western conference football eleven Saturday will face their strongest opposition this far this season when four teams will meet in contests affecting the championship and the others will complete their tuning up for titular battles by tackling non-conference aggregations which are expected to furnish strenuous competition.

Minnesota university's eleven will meet its first test in the game at Minneapolis with Northwestern. This contest is expected to definitely determine what chances the Gophers will have for the big ten title, for Northwestern is weak and unless Minnesota can triumph by a fair sized score it will not be greatly feared in future games. Northwestern has already lost to Chicago, 40 to 0, and Beloit college 7 to 0, the latter being a minor school as far as football goes.

The other conference game will find Chicago and Purdue at St. Louis field here in a game which should give strong indication of whether the Maroons are going to be a real factor in middle west football this year. Purdue has been defeated by Wabash college in a preliminary game.

Iowa university's eleven, another team of unknown strength, but possibly of considerable ability, will tackle Notre Dame at Iowa City in the most important of the non-conference games.

Illinois goes into its first game of the season, meeting South Dakota university at Urbana, Ill. Coach Zuppke, minus many of the stars of last year's team, has not yet procured an arrangement of players that suit him and his lineup will be closely watched by other coaches. Michigan and Wisconsin, believed to be unusually strong this year, will meet Case at Ann Arbor, Mich., and South Dakota state at Madison, Wis., respectively.

Ohio State, 1920 champion, faces Oberlin at Columbus.

Indiana's team has journey east to Gary, Ind., to take on Harvard in the first east-west intercollegiate clash of the season.

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

Footbal scores received play by play—"Hullie and Mike."

CHET GRANT

Chet Grant, during quarterback whose return to the game has been eagerly awaited by thousands of Notre Dame followers, has rounded in to condition and will start the game against Iowa this afternoon.

That is the information which all Notre Dame is rejoicing over this morning. Since the beginning of the season the one weak spot on the Rocker aggregation has been quarterback. While Thomas, Smith, Rees and Magevney all give promise of developing into good men, they lack the experience which is almost an essential part of a quarterback's training. The pivot man runs the team, and nothing but experience can teach a man how to do that correctly.

A great deal of pessimism exhibited by the Rockers this week was due to the lack of an experienced quarterback. But that is remedied now, and men who remember how Chet Grant performed in previous years at Notre Dame are confidently predicting a victory for the Rockers.

That is, seems, is the only logical prophecy for with the return of Grant, with Paul Castner again able to take a place at fullback, with Harry Mehre in tolerable good condition and every other member of the squad feeling fit, Notre Dame will be able to stack up against Iowa, man for man, and present a decidedly superior lineup.

Slater Big Bugaboo.
The biggest bugaboo in the Hawkeyes' camp seems to be Slater. The prowess of this big negro has been the subject of columns of newspaper comment. During the last two years sport writers have time and again predicted the defeat of some team because of the presence of Slater in the opposing lineup. The reputation of Slater often blinds one to the merits of an opposing tackle. But nevertheless, Iowa has been defeated many times with the colored man in the lineup by teams admittedly weaker than the Rockers. The famous Devines were also present on those occasions.

Notre Dame believes that Slater will meet his superior in Heust Garvey, and there are grounds for that belief. Garvey was a hard hitting man, and although large is fast enough to make the hundred yard dash in 11 seconds consistently. Slater is not that fast. In addition Garvey weighs 30 pounds more than the Iowa. It is our opinion that no tackle in the world can give Garvey 30 pounds and live to tell the tale.

It will be a great game between Grant and Slater, the greatest games of the 1921 football season, perhaps one of the greatest games in the history of football.

The cravat was originally a large shawl worn around the neck, not for show, but for comfort, by a nation of eastern Europe called the Cravates.